Description

We are looking for a Graphic Designer to join our team and work with one of our long-term international clients in the Printing & Marketing industry.

This role is a great fit for someone who enjoys creating visually engaging marketing materials, exploring different creative directions, and turning ideas and briefs into polished designs.

You'll Be Working On

- Design a variety of internal marketing and promotional materials, including brochures, flyers, advertisements, and other print and digital assets
- Develop 2–3 initial concepts or creative directions for individual design requests and further develop the selected direction
- Translate briefs and business requirements into clear and visually engaging design solutions
- Create layouts and visual materials using Adobe InDesign, Illustrator, and Photoshop
- Adapt and refine existing designs based on feedback
- Ensure consistency and quality across different marketing materials
- Prepare final design files for their intended use
- Communicate and collaborate with the client and team throughout the design and review process

What We're Looking For

- Experience with graphic design, ideally creating marketing, advertising, promotional, or print materials
- Good working knowledge of: Adobe InDesign, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Photoshop
- Ability to explore different visual approaches and present multiple concepts for the same brief
- Good understanding of typography, layout, composition, color, and visual hierarchy
- Attention to detail and ability to deliver polished, consistent designs
- Ability to understand feedback and translate it into design improvements
- Good organization and ability to work independently
- Professional working proficiency in English, as communication with the international client will be part of the role
- A portfolio showcasing relevant graphic design work is required.
