Description

Are you experienced in food packaging, FMCG branding and professional print production? We’re looking for a creative and detail-oriented designer who can transform existing brand assets into high-quality, commercially ready packaging and retail artwork.

Key Responsibilities

- Design and update food packaging, pouch labels and product labels.
- Create retail artwork, promotional posters and shelf talkers.
- Work with existing brand assets and layouts in Figma.
- Develop bilingual English and Arabic (RTL) designs.
- Retouch and enhance food photography for commercial use.
- Prepare accurate, print-ready artwork according to printer specifications.

Essential Skills

- Strong experience in food packaging and FMCG design.
- Proficiency in Figma, Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator.
- Knowledge of print production and pre-press requirements.
- Experience with food photography retouching.
- Strong typography, layout and brand consistency skills.
- Ability to manage revisions and deadlines independently.
